Editorial

Which is Being Circulated Against General Bidwell, Prohibition Candidate for President—The Facts of the Case.

The following article is taken from the Revere, Massachusetts, Journal, but has appeared in several other papers in the East:

"Gen. Bidwell, the Prohibition candidate for President, appears to have something of a record in the wine making line. He was formerly the leading wine and brandy producer in this country, and he is understood to have amassed a handsome fortune in the business. Seven years ago he had the largest brandy still in California and over 500 acres in wine grapes. The delegates to the recent Editorial Convention was received at Chico, California, by Gen. Bidwell as presiding officer of the meeting in their honor, and while they were not given an opportunity to inspect his vineyards, they were quick to understand that he was largely interested in the business."

We would be pleased to know who "quietly informed" the delegates to the National Editorial Association that General Bidwell was largely interested in the wine business. Such an assertion is preposterous in the extreme, and all who reside in this part of California know that such a statement is a base libel, without the shadow of foundation.

THE FACTS IN THE CASE

Are as follows: The largest area which General Bidwell ever had in wine grapes was between eight and ten acres, and these were principally the old Mission variety, but about 1000 catwaba vines were included. Now these were all the wine grapes that General Bidwell ever had, on the Rancho Chico, or any place else.

General Bidwell began the making of wine in 1864 or '65, and the business was continued during two years. The wine grapes on Rancho Chico were dug up in 1867, and there has never been a wine grape planted nor a drop of wine made on General Bidwell's possessions since that date. Their next was at any time nation of a Worm.

There is a kind of worm
that falls a prey to a specific fungus. In the case this fungus pervades the worm's entire anatomical structure, converting him into a state in which he is essentially a valuable medicine.

BY D. C. R.

With General Bidwell at the front,
 And A. M. Hough beside,
 We'll make the fight—see if we don't—
 Whatever ill betide.
 But ill will not betide us long,
 We're growing grandly great;
 Our men are marching, thousands strong,
 To vote and save the state.

Hurrah for Bidwell and for Hough!
 And Prohibition too;
 Our nominees are good enough,
 They're stalwart, strong and true.

We aim to save our golden state,
 Fronting the calm west sea.
 From shame, from ruin doubly great,
 For truth and purity.
 We aim to save, alas! the need,
 The rum-invaded home;
 Save from the spoiler's cruel greed,
 Secure from base to dome.
 Hurrah for Bidwell, etc.

The churches are at last awake,—
 Alive to high emprise;
 It is a fight they too must make;
 Or basely compromise;
 They've prayed too long, God's will be done,
 Whilst voting the reverse;
 Their votes and prayers should both be one Against the dreadful curse.
 Hurrah for Bidwell, etc.

The working men, the farmers, and Those who for daily wage
 Toil hard; are banding in one band
 Their sorrows to assuage:—
 They see with us the corporate greed
 Deserves a killing blow,
 And so, to satisfy their need,
 Their ballots they'll bestow.
 Hurrah for Bidwell, etc.

The Rep's, they fence the liquor in
 And make it pay a tax;
 They think high license is no sin
 Their morals are so lax.
 They're "haud in glove" with the base trade
 For pelf and party gain,—
 Fair promises they've often made,
 Which we've believed in vain.
 Hurrah for Bidwell, etc.

The Dem's also! are just as bad;—
 Or worse, perhaps than they;
 Free whisky is with them a bad—
 Free whisky night and day:
 They have and hold their lofty "Jinke"
 And shout for liberty;
 But soon will come a change, me thinks!
 We'll all be glad to see.
 Hurrah for Bidwell, etc.

Hurrah! Hurrah! once more hurrah!
 And then hurrah again;
 Hurrah for order and for law,
 Clean politics and men;—
 Hurrah for peace, at home, abroad;
 Through all our vast domain—
 The home redeemed, the rum outlawed
 Never to rule again.
 Hurrah for Bidwell, etc.

 self, many, beautiful -

 I get me not long in bloom

Up at 4.30 A.M.

Monday March 19, 1900, - At 6.5 this A.M.
 Mr & Mrs Garrison, Mrs Thornton & self drove Grindle to see Johnny Richards who, with Steve Thompson were to be arraigned for murder this A.M. Arrived a few moments before time.
 Mrs G. saw the boys & prayed with them, while Mrs Thornton & I went to see Dist. Atty. Sentence was pronounced on them about 10.20 A.M. and Judge Gray, seeing our interest, took our testimony as to the safe character, & high testimony, he said would give the privilege for a petition to the Gov.
 in 15 years, for Johnny's pardon, in view of Johnny's previous character & good behavior.
 The boys had resolved to tell all the truth and to be Christ's hand-picks. Steve assumed the responsibility of the murder - "I killed him", and previous statements to the contrary, false.
 It was a sad spectacle, but grand in the most repentance & truthfulness. For all the states present. Both boys said they were satisfied with the sentence, as also did Johnny's mother.
 Dist. Atty. (Ashby, May Jones), Fair counsel (Gibson)
 & Judge Gray, were our admirers.

CHICO ENTERPRISE.

Celebration at the Indian Village.

The Indian chapel has been removed from General Bidwell's grounds into the Rancheria. The church has been repaired and greatly improved inside and out. An organ loft, a raised platform for the speaker, a vestibule and a bell tower add greatly to the convenience, as well as to the appearance. The chapel has been painted and white-washed, a neat fence incloses the church and the yard has been planted in trees and shrubs.

Yesterday morning the stars and stripes floated from the flag-staff, while just beneath, in the tower, for the first time, the new bell, purchased by the Indians, pealed forth a glad welcome, bidding the congregation, "Come into the house of the Lord." The church had quite a festal air, as the Indians had decorated it very tastefully with wild flowers and flowers from their own grounds.

The exercises were largely musical. Services were opened by the Indians' patron saint, Mrs. Bidwell. The singing was lead by the children and young men, Miss Ida Florence, as usual, presiding at the organ. Austin McLain gave a fine violin solo and later gave a vocal solo.

Maggie Lafonso and William Conway each sang a solo in rich, melodious voices.

The Indian Band was in fine time and their strains of music added zest and inspiration to the occasion.

Hattie accompanied us and cooked eggs, bacon & potatoes for lunch

Worked until One before ceasing! Oh how tired I was tramping, yet my beloved appeared unwearied! After luncheon I rest-back to work, but we drove back the mile we had twice walked in the A. M.

I remained with horses while the resurveyed. How my beloved endures the my ears with my hands, looked at my husband & said I hope God will not fra-sed my husband to lead in the 57 P'salm

My beloved husband's birth day! 30 years of age, and apparently very many years less. To me, appears younger than I. We were up at 5 A. M.
At 8.20 drove to Plattville to see Mr Bunnell out road. Back by noon. Mr & Mrs Faniari dined (by General's invitation) with him on this his birthday. Mrs Faniari sent him a Spring Chicken (last arriving for birth-day dinner. Also peas, sweet-bellies & white fish. He — Luke had us a good ice pudding & we had rich cream from the Faniari cay. Had rice, potatoes, tomatoes, plum butter, Stewed Chicken with cream gravy, Salade, and pear bush and plum, also lemonade and cake.
In afternoon we had men help the Faniari take his hay from meadows to barn.

Hattie, Luke & I at prayers, at 12.15 before dinner. I walked three miles to Mrs Faniari's to see at 6 A. M. to cream for Kennedy's expected breakfast with us en route to Chico. Left there at 8.40 on our way to Plattville. Choked a moment passing. They stopped to see our camp and gave some fruit, which Luke gave them.

August, Tuesday, 8. 1899

Lovely day. A few rain drops in the night 1899.

The anniversary of our beloved mother's birth-day. I passed the 80th anniversary with her, in 1846. She came from Buena Vista Springs to be with her uncle. What a blessed day it was for us both! The dear mother so heavenly in her loveliness! Many friends called to greet her and some brought gifts. So she sat at front door, and in parlour in her beautiful white dress, with blue sash and ~~brooch~~ at neck, and a pink rose. She was a picture of loveliness. But oh the heavenly smile of our rock mother! I have never seen such on anyone else as this smile, from my childhood to this 80th birthday. It was my joy in my childhood, and through life has continued to be.

On Pipe Hill grade. Gail. Self. Walter Stuben, Humb. Fred Durham Frank the cairn, John Farnian, all working in me or another way. I hold in those 5 Cornyall - driving and writing alternately, pen in teeth at times, when "precious drive on," is the order of the day. Sister, by intervals.

On way home from work met Mr Frank Euter with Mrs & Ethel Faulkner, Miss Abbie, Frank Robinson, en route for Hot Springs and Mt Lassen. They camped for the night by Mr Farnian's.

Up at 4.45 A.M. Very cold. Fine Camp

Like kept camp and gave us fine dinner.
Finished opening new road beyond Pipe Camp.
Now we worked. Beloved, Ruben, Henry, Hattie, Fred Towhame, Johnny Farniani, — and in

Georgie Carman, Dr Hester A. Hewlings of 650 East 14th St Oakland, Cal. <sup>San Francisco</sup> Read last Chap. Of Malachi. <sup>Los Angeles</sup> Johnny Farniani told me that his father had not attended "Church" for many years until he attended one last February, and now he wants to go again, for he says "he understood what you say, you make it so plain". I told Johnny that God makes it plain, not I, and I record here my gratitude for God's goodness to us in helping Mr Farniani true.

importance of the Kalmuk & Prussian for whom I had been for 20000.
I suspect the reason I was not for the first time. When I was top of the mountain, I was in a corner, but he went off in a hurry as if he had been a thief, I was for the first time.

Spent the day at the school. The Miss Bernard class did 11.7 of paper. The girls of the afternoon class, a longer number of which were some of our best students, did a beautiful set of small flower papers.

Called at Park Hotel about 10 A.M. for Mrs. Welles, Missionary lecturer, & brought her to our home. Made large poster advertising her coming & placed it by Bank of Chico. Mrs. Canfield took Mrs. Welles to the Living Room at 3 P.M. I got Mrs. Reynolds to drive her by creek & avenue, gathered grand chrysanthemums for Church, this eve.
Mrs. Welles gave fine lecture at Church, for Hornum & Mr. White; I preached on Austrians.
& Mrs. Seymour walked among chrysanthemums with Mrs. Canfield & me.

Beloved drove nearly miles with Col. Royce to see about sword a poor family, wished of him.
He recited to our amusement - "And he was about it!"

(and to Indian village)
Drove Mrs Wells up Kullumbroda, to her delight. Banners of gay grape leave at times gleamed from the trees on which they had climbed. Very lovely the creek and woods. Afternoon heavy rain. Deciding Mrs Wells not to remain for prayer-meeting but soon 7 P.M. rain. Drove her to train, and stopped at Church for teachers, and Prayer meeting. Valuable lesson from Pastor on old Testament witness to Jesus as given by John's Gospel.

Addie Bryant Linn our guest -

November, Wednesday, 22.

1893.

Beloved is a constant reminder and joy, with his sweetness of disposition, pleasant of conversation and thought; and industry of thought his oratory includes the comical, lofty and dainty, the ode of Pope or Goldsmith; a "Frog croaking in the pool." The man who domes over the columns predicted by seers each sits contentedly by fire-side while his "babe" "outba" clubs at Washington - a humble deed. The good power to pay "The Constitution of the U. S." is "inculcated" address at Gettysburg - flows from his memory with delightful ease & good faith. I trust memory of our blessed days together will never fail me.

Came on Addie Bryant Linn & family to her home to pass two days with us. Came on from South Boston & Mass. & back. and Washington, about before written over S. S. or Lump. & to get their ideas. Called on Mrs.

Mrs. Linn, and the Pore, & drew up contract - agreed on type - sent, for below for J. C. Morris' work. On Thursday, however, which day was meeting & Linn was in town at 9 P. M. in business -
